THE BOATSHED is situated above a sun-drenched bay on the island of Waiheke, off the coast of Auckland. This luxury hotel is inspired by the early 1900 boatsheds that scatter the country's shores. Offering nine beautifully appointed guest suites, each with panoramic views and a high level of design detail, open fires and a relaxed pallet.

Take a stroll amongst an eclectic mix of award-winning vineyards, sophisticated alfresco restaurants, artists' studios and galleries or along one of the many deserted, golden, sandy beaches.

Dining is a relaxed affair – the hotels extensive kitchen gardens supply the kitchen with daily produce to accompany what is best from land to sea, plenty of alfresco places to eat make this one of the highlights of staying at The Boatshed and something not to miss – only available to guests staying in house. It is private and the discreet service is all about the guests

HIGHLIGHTS

Extensive kitchen gardens – most produce used is grown in the hotel gardens

High level of design detail – the property is well suited to style savvy guests that appreciate well-curated spaces

Little Oneroa Beach – the island's unpolished charm gives it a real sense of holiday character with beautiful untouched beaches

INSIDE

Enter to the chic, casual gallery, be entranced by the open log fire, white wood floors; a relaxed but sophisticated space to unwind. Wide timber decks with sweeping views of Oneroa Bay and beyond to the ocean. Enjoy a glass of wine, a platter of canapés to take in your surroundings – you have arrived at one of New Zealand's best small luxury hotels
