THE LODGE

Historic Pen-y-bryn Lodge carries a Category One Heritage New Zealand classification. This small luxury boutique style lodge offers exclusive luxury lodge accommodation. Constructed in opulent Victorian style in 1889. Reputed to be the largest single-storey wooden structure in Australasia, extensive verandas, rose gardens and established trees. Pen-y-bryn Lodge is located on a hill overlooking Oamaru Township just a few minutes' drive away

INSIDE

Enter a majestic foyer with leadlight windows and antique furnishings welcoming you to the elegance of a by-gone era.
The spacious Drawing Room with its welcoming fireplace entices guests to settle in and just relax on the comfortable sofas with a book and soak up the atmosphere of this historic mansion. Evening pre-dinner drinks and canapés are served from the large antique sideboard providing a wonderful opportunity to mingle with your hosts and other guests. Or browse through the guest library housing a large selection of books for perusing during your stay – an extensive library of world cuisine awaits. The Lodge has a large Billiards Room, complete with a full-size competition table and a baby grand piano for your pleasure.

MAX PER ROOM THREE (3)

except Elizabeth and Victoria Rooms, which accommodate no more than two (2). Children under 13 accommodated by request only.

BEDROOMS

FIVE (5) elegant guest rooms. 100% cotton bed linen, duvet and comfortable feather and down pillows (hypoallergenic options available). All-cotton bathrobes. Butler's tray with tea/coffee and lodge-baked biscuits. Complimentary UFB wireless internet and Bluetooth-enabled clock/radio.

BEDDING

The Elizabeth Room – Queen located in the main Lodge - French doors open to a private courtyard.

The Victoria Room - Queen located in the main Lodge – overlooks the Oamaru stone terrace. Suitable for guests with limited mobility.

THE ANNEX

Three rooms are located on the first floor (upstairs) in the Oamaru stone Annex. This building was constructed at the same time as Pen-y-bryn Lodge but was extensively redesigned and refurbished in winter 2015

The Garden Room – Split California-king bed (convertible into two king singles upon request), convertible queen sofa bed for third guest; large wardrobe and storage area. Nespresso maker. Supplemental Heat pump/air-conditioner. Overlooks rear garden.

The Park Room – Split super-king bed (convertible into two king singles upon request), convertible double sofa bed for third guest; large wardrobe and storage area. Nespresso coffee maker. Supplemental heat pump/air-conditioner. Underfloor heating in ensuite. Overlooks the Potager Garden

The Nest – Split super-king bed (convertible into two king singles upon request), convertible double sofa bed for third guest; large wardrobe and storage area. Nespresso coffee maker. Supplemental heat pump/air-conditioner. Underfloor heating in ensuite.

BATHROOMS

Elizabeth Room has its original large pedestal bath with shower over bathtub. Underfloor heating. Hairdryer, valet accessories and a full range of quality New Zealand toiletries.

Victoria Room offers a walk-in shower. Underfloor heating. Disabled accessible roll-in shower stall. Hairdryer, valet accessories and a full range of quality New Zealand toiletries.

The Garden Room, Park Room and The Nest feature separate bathtub and walk-in shower with heated tile floors and heated towel rack. Hairdryer, valet accessories and a full range of quality New Zealand toiletries

RELAX

Choose a book and recline on the Victorian Chaise Longue in the Sun Room for a quiet read. Or, maybe a game of Billiards on the magnificent full-size competition table. Visit the Harbour-Tyne historical precinct, an area of splendid Victorian commercial buildings and warehouses. View the delightful penguin parade at the Oamaru Blue Penguin Colony a short drive from the lodge or visit the world's rarest yellow-eyed penguins at the nearby Katiki Lighthouse (contact Pen-y-bryn Lodge for timings). Take a drive to the iconic Moeraki Boulders, or a day trip to Danseys Pass or Mt Cook/Aoraki. Drive along the Waitaki Valley to view the stunning scenery and taste the area's award-winning wines. Fishing and hunting are available in the area with qualified guides. Or a tour of the region – your hosts would be happy to arrange this for you. Refer to Activities link to Pen-y-bryn Lodge

CUISINE

A candlelit table adorned with fresh flowers, sparkling crystal, crisp linen and polished silver. Dining at Pen-y-bryn resembles a private dinner party with a mix of nationalities, ages and interests ensuring convivial dining. Guests and honeymoon couples who prefer a more intimate setting are welcome to request private dining. Having lived and worked around the world, your hosts offer an unparalleled range of dining experiences, and can cater to any taste, whether traditional New Zealand cuisine using the finest local ingredients, or authentic cuisine from East Asia, South America, North Africa or the Middle East.

James Glucksman is an Officier Maître Hôtelier of the New Zealand branch of La Confrérie de la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs – the Paris-based culinary society.

Combine a dining experience at Pen-y-bryn Lodge with a night dining at one of the award-winning restaurants in Oamaru.
