Arcadia Lodge, built in the early 1900s, sits proudly above Russell's Matauwhi Bay, where heritage character meets modern comfort. From its wide verandas and sunlit rooms, guests can gaze across the harbour to the boats resting in this peaceful corner of the Bay of Islands.

On the ground floor, three generous suites each have their own bathrooms and open directly to decks with panoramic bay views. The family-friendly Matariki Suite offers two bedrooms and sleeps up to four. Upstairs, three charming heritage rooms look out to the bay or the cottage gardens.

For those seeking independence, Arcadia Cottage—just steps from the lodge—provides a delightful self-contained stay. Surrounded by flowering gardens, it features two bedrooms, a spacious lounge, sunroom, balcony, and fully equipped kitchen, while still giving the option to enjoy breakfast at the lodge.

Each morning, a generous gourmet breakfast crafted by your hosts is served on the sunny deck—so relaxed and delicious you may never want to leave. Guests are welcome to help themselves to freshly brewed coffee, tea, and home baking in the lounge. A carefully chosen selection of local wines, offered at modest prices, makes evenings on the deck even more enjoyable.

The lodge is a short stroll from Russell's historic waterfront, lined with boutiques, cafés, and restaurants. Explore further afield with a ferry to Paihia, a sailing adventure through the islands, or a leisurely lunch at a nearby vineyard.
