

OMAKA LODGE

50 Words

Omaka Lodge, set in landscaped gardens near Taumarunui, is a refined country retreat with sweeping Whanganui River valley views. Five comfortable guest rooms, a pool, tennis court, and The Gardener's Folly—a whimsical glamping hut in the gardens—offer guests a choice of classic lodge style or a playful, romantic escape.

150 Words

Omaka Lodge is a peaceful country retreat just outside Taumarunui on the Forgotten World Highway. Surrounded by manicured gardens and wide lawns, the lodge enjoys panoramic views across the Whanganui River valley.

Five guest rooms combine comfort and elegance with super king/twin bedding, modern bathrooms, and restful garden or countryside outlooks. Guests can relax in welcoming lounges, take a dip in the outdoor swimming pool, or enjoy the tennis court and croquet lawn. A generous breakfast featuring fresh local produce is included, while evening dining can be arranged by prior request.

Adding a touch of whimsy, The Gardener's Folly—a charming, rustic glamping hut tucked among the gardens—offers a unique and romantic overnight experience under the stars.

The lodge is also a base for adventures: Forgotten World Rail Cart tours, kayaking the Whanganui River, the Sky Waka gondola at Mt Ruapehu, or the world-famous Tongariro Alpine Crossing.

270 Words

Omaka Lodge, perched above the Whanganui River valley near Taumarunui, is a country retreat that blends gracious hospitality with tranquil rural beauty. Set in expansive lawns and gardens, the lodge is ideally located on the Forgotten World Highway and within easy reach of the Tongariro and Whanganui National Parks.

Five guest rooms are individually styled for comfort, with super king/twin bedding, quality linens, and serene garden or countryside views. Guests can unwind in spacious lounges, curl up with a book beside the fire, or help themselves to tea and home baking. Outdoors, the swimming pool, tennis court, croquet lawn, and shaded terraces provide ample opportunities to relax in the fresh country air.

A generous breakfast showcasing fresh local produce is included daily, while evening dining is available by arrangement.

For something truly different, The Gardener's Folly awaits—a whimsical, rustic hut nestled within the gardens. This romantic glamping-style hideaway, complete with double bed, quirky detailing, and outdoor seating under the stars, offers a playful alternative to the main lodge experience.

Omaka Lodge is also a gateway to some of New Zealand's most memorable adventures: cycle or rail-cart the Forgotten World Railway, kayak or jet boat down the Whanganui River, soar above Mt Ruapehu on the Sky Waka gondola, or hike the world-renowned Tongariro Alpine Crossing. Afterward, return to the lodge's calm charm and warm