

50 Words

Rimu Lodge is an elegant boutique lodge set high above the Hokitika River, just minutes from the West Coast town. Four luxurious ensuite rooms enjoy sweeping mountain and river views. Combining understated sophistication with warm Kiwi hospitality, the lodge is a tranquil base for exploring glaciers, forests, and wild beaches.

150 Words

Perched above the Hokitika River on New Zealand's dramatic West Coast, Rimu Lodge is a boutique retreat where tranquillity meets understated luxury. Just a short drive from Hokitika township, the lodge commands sweeping views of river, rainforest, and Southern Alps peaks.

Four beautifully designed guest rooms feature super king/twin beds, fine linens, underfloor-heated ensuites, and picture windows framing the views. Guests can relax in the spacious lounge by the fire, enjoy a glass of wine on the terrace, or simply soak up the serenity.

A generous breakfast with seasonal, local produce is included each morning. Dinner options are nearby in Hokitika, known for its artisan food, jade galleries, and wild beach sunsets.

Rimu Lodge makes an ideal base for West Coast adventures—from glacier walks and treks through lush rainforest, to scenic flights, cycle trails, or exploring the untamed coastline.

270 Words

Rimu Lodge, just a few minutes from Hokitika, is the West Coast's only 5*luxury lodge, offering a blend of sophistication, comfort, and stunning natural beauty. Elevated above the Hokitika River, the lodge boasts uninterrupted views of the valley, lush rainforest, and the snow-capped peaks of the Southern Alps.

Four individually styled guest rooms are designed for relaxation, each with super king/twin beds, luxurious linens, and modern ensuite bathrooms with underfloor heating. Large windows bring the spectacular scenery indoors.

Inside, the lodge's spacious lounge and dining areas invite conversation or quiet reflection beside the fire. Outdoors, wide decks provide the perfect spot to watch the sun set behind the mountains.

Each morning begins with a gourmet breakfast featuring fresh local ingredients. Evenings guests love to gather for a glass of wine before be spent sampling local restaurants in Hokitika or maybe the Woodstock Pub.

Rimu Lodge is ideally placed for exploring the best of the West Coast: walk among ancient rainforests, discover jade and artisan galleries, cycle the West Coast Wilderness Trail, or take a scenic flight over the mountain glaciers. Return each evening to warm Kiwi hospitality and the comfort of this tranquil retreat.