

THE POINT VILLAS - TAUPO

50 Words

Located within the gated Whakamoenga Point estate on Lake Taupō, The Point Villas combine luxury with seclusion. Surrounded by native bush, the two villas feature private decks, pools, and spas. Tatamoana also offers a cedar barrel sauna. A private chef available by prior request.

150 Words

Set within the exclusive Whakamoenga Point estate on the shores of Lake Taupō, The Point Villas offer a luxurious escape surrounded by native bush and exotic plantings, with breathtaking lake and mountain views.

The two spacious villas feature open-plan living areas framed by glass, leading onto wide terraces. Each villa includes its own solar-heated swimming pool and spa, perfect for relaxing.

Tatamoana accommodates up to two couples or a family of four and features a cedar barrel sauna. Ngahere suits up to three couples or a family of six. Bedrooms flow to dressing rooms and into elegant Italian Travertine marble bathrooms, complete with glass-walled showers that create the sensation of bathing outdoors.

Beautifully equipped kitchens with premium European appliances allow for relaxed dining, or guests can request the services of a private chef. Golf, fly-fishing, and Taupō's world-class natural attractions lie just beyond the estate.

250 Words

The Point Villas, located within the gated Whakamoenga Point estate on Lake Taupō, offer an exquisite blend of privacy, luxury, and nature. Surrounded by native bush and exotic plantings, both villas showcase expansive lake and mountain views, setting the stage for a truly unforgettable stay.

Each spacious villa opens through walls of glass to wide terracing, with a private solar-heated swimming pool and spa inviting guests to unwind in style. Tatamoana, Villa One, is ideal for two couples or a family of four, and includes the added indulgence of a cedar barrel sauna. Ngahere, Villa Two, accommodates up to three couples or a family of six.

Elegant bedrooms connect to dressing rooms and stunning Italian Travertine marble bathrooms, with glass-walled showers that evoke the feeling of bathing outdoors among native trees. Kitchens are superbly appointed with premium European appliances for easy self-catering, or guests may request the services of a private chef for a tailored dining experience.

Beyond the villas, enjoy all-weather floodlit tennis courts, a croquet lawn, and a pétanque pit. For adventure, arrive by helicopter at the private helipad and explore hidden fly-fishing rivers with expert guides, or take a scenic flight over live volcanoes. Taupō also boasts two championship golf courses just 15 minutes away, and the Tongariro Alpine Crossing—one of New Zealand's most spectacular one-day hikes—is within easy reach.

A sanctuary of elegance and adventure, The Point Villas embody the best of Lake Taupō.
